(d)	Brief description of offence	On the evening of November 20, 2008, during the concluding session of the IUML (Indian Union Muslim League) Eastern Region Protest March, P.K. Basheer delivered the presidential address. In the presence of distinguished individuals on the stage including the Honorable Union Minister of State for External Affairs E. Ahamed, M.P. Wahab, P.K. Kunhalikutty, M.K. Muneer, and Abdussamad Samadani—the accused (P.K. Basheer) issued a threat stating that "the legs of those who provide false testimony against League workers would be chopped off by League workers." He specifically threatened that "the legs of those testifying in the case regarding the death of James Mash (James Teacher), who died during a cluster meeting, would be chopped off by the League workers of this region." He further stated in his speech that it was because of this threat that the witnesses failed to identify the accused during the identification parade, a statement which was welcomed with applause by his followers. By delivering such a speech in a public place, the accused has challenged the judicial system. It is evident that the speech was intended to deter individuals from appearing in court to provide truthful testimony. Consequently, the accused has committed punishable offenses under the relevant sections of the law.

(d)	Brief description of offence for which convicted	On 12.06.2020 at 11:00 a.m., near the KSEB office at Areekode, while the Government order for the control of COVID-19 was in force, under the leadership of P.K. Basheer, MLA, a large number of people assembled in the town and conducted a public meeting, thereby causing the spread of the COVID-19 epidemic through community transmission, and without maintaining social distancing, conducted a dharna in front of the KSEB office, thereby facilitating the spread of infectious disease.	In violation of the law that no march or procession shall be conducted through public ways in a manner that creates a public nuisance or obstruction, in connection with the Walayar incident and for the purpose of recording their protest, approximately 500 Youth League workers, including accused persons 1 to 6, formed an unlawful assembly with a common object. Having pre-planned their common objective and with the knowledge of being members of the said assembly, on 14/11/2019 at approximately 11:30 hours, they were observed proceeding in a procession, shouting slogans from the road situated near the Akkama Cheriyan Statue in front of the Raj Bhavan, Vellayambalam. Upon encountering the police party— under the leadership of the Assistant Commissioner of Police and in the presence of the Executive Magistrate at the Devaswom Board Junction— who had erected barricades, the said workers continued to occupy the road while shouting slogans. Subsequently, they attempted to breach the barricades to proceed forward, which was duly prevented. This resulted in the obstruction of vehicular traffic on the road from the Vellayambalam Akkama Cheriyan Statue to the Devaswom Board from 11:00
